

Poetry at Olive's

Monthly community poetry event
(3rd Tuesdays)

Olive's Café,

40 Elm Hill, Norwich,
NR3 1HG

Events: January - March 2013

Further information from hilary\_stanton@btinternet.com

Tuesday 19 February
from 8 pm

Readings by:
John Vaughan
President Gas
*

Open Mic

Tuesday 19 March
from 8 pm

Adrian McKeogh
Hilary Mellon
*

Open Mic

Tuesday 16 April
from 8 pm

Spring has sprung!

Open Mic readings: poems and short prose selections on landscape and the seasons (to include original work)

Engraving by Meindert Hobbema of the Dutch School (1638-1709)

Programme 2013

Dates for your diary:

Tuesdays 19 February, 19 March, 16 April, 21 May, 18 June, 16 July

All poetry events include an open mic section and a raffle with prizes

*Free entry
Bar available
Musical interlude*

(subject to musicians being available).

Poetry at Olive's is a monthly community poetry event, held in an appealing, relaxed setting at Olive's Cafe, 40 Elm Hill, Norwich. It provides a forum to encourage local writers – both published and unpublished - to read their work in public. Open Mic is there for all comers to read one poem or one very short piece of prose per event (maximum 3 minutes). There will be 14 Open Mic slots available at our Tuesday events.

Olive's regulars (with experience of reading from Open Mic) may apply to do a longer slot (20 minutes). All applications will be seriously considered. Please contact: hilary\_stanton@btinternet.com. We would also like to hear from musicians (instrumentalists) who are interested in playing a musical interlude. From time to time we stage special themed events.

While entry is free we hold a raffle to support future events at £1 for 5 tickets; prizes include poetry books and writers' and artists' notebooks especially hand-bound for the occasion.

For details of events, information on poetic forms and useful poetry links, check out our website at:

http:// www.poetrynorwich.org